On 10/29/2018, the Honorable Ralph R. Beistline, granted Plaintiff Edward G. Byford Jr. an extension of time to file an Amended Section 2254 Petition on or before December 31, 2018. Plaintiff presents the following pleading request.

Due to unexpected obstacles, limited resources and the magnitude of the proceeding before the court, Plaintiff Edward G. Byford Jr. respectfully requests additional time to finalize representation and present an Amended Section 2254 Petition for the Court's consideration. Plaintiff Edward G. Byford Jr. consulted with attorney's in the State of Oregon including attorney Thomas Coan of Portland, Oregon. Mr. Coan requires 90 days to review the files and determine if he can represent Plaintiff and file an Amended Petition.

Plaintiff Edward G. Byford Jr., is indebted to the court for providing Plaintiff adequate time to obtain accomplished legal representation to judiciously address the court.

Plaintiff assures the court he is diligent in his efforts to secure representation and prays this pleading as presented assures the court of Plaintiff's indubitable intent to proceed to culmination of a suitable amended petition.
